The little man

by MiaQc

Summary

A one shot. Neri finds a little creature on Charlie's back.

- A translation of Le petit homme by MiaQc

Neri swims rapidly in the ocean. She watches the seafloor, making sure no human action threatens the waters. Suddenly, she hears Charlie, her whale friend, calling for help. Neri, as if in a vision, sees Charlie swimming slowly through the water. A small creature is on his back. A humanoid creature wearing a space suit. No! thought Neri. It's going to drown! Neri quickens her pace and, in a flash, she arrives at Charlie's side.

Neri sees that the little creature is a small man with pointed ears, a big nose, a few strands of brown hair and hyphenated eyes. Bubbles come out of his open mouth. Neri takes him and she rises to the surface. She looks at the little man. His eyes have widened and his skin is taking on a violet hue. He's suffocating! How? Neri hurriedly plunged her hands and the little man into the water. She sees him regain his colors. He breathes. Underwater. Where does he come from? Who is he? Neri has to go to ORCA to ask for help. She dives in again and, after putting the alien under her tunic, against her flesh, she starts swimming.
